1. Vision

A democratic and just society that guarantees rights, respect and dignity of all individuals

2. Mission Statement

TDEA-FAFEN strives to strengthen public accountabilities by enhancing capability of citizens' associations to work for civil liberties, improved governance, democracy and peace in Pakistan.

3. Values

TDEA/FAFEN upholds the following Principles and Values in the performance of its work, public interactions and organizational procedures and process:

- Inclusion: TDEA/FAFEN believes in inclusion as the basis for strengthening democratization, and therefore, encourages greater participation of all stakeholders particularly the marginalized in its work.
- Integration: TDEA/FAFEN believes in partnerships and networks as critical in integrating and strengthening voices of citizens and their associations for civil liberties, improved governance, democracy and peace in Pakistan.
- Neutrality: TDEA/FAFEN does not support any political party.
- Transparency: TDEA/FAFEN procedures and processes maximize organizational transparency.
- Accountability: TDEA/FAFEN is open to public accountability of its governance, work, performance and conduct.
- Objectivity: TDEA/FAFEN gives primacy to robust methodologies and information based on facts and/or credible research and evidence as a cornerstone to its processes, programming, public positions and advocacy.
- Rule of Law: TDEA/FAFEN adheres to the all provisions in the constitution, law, rules and regulations in vogue in the country that are not in violation of civil and political liberties.
- Non-Discrimination: TDEA/FAFEN does not discriminate and condone discrimination on the basis of caste, color, ethnicity, creed, gender, religion, political, geographical or linguistic background, marital status, sexual orientation, age or physical disability, etc.
- Best Practices: TDEA/FAFEN enhances its organizational competence by incorporating best program and management practices and standards.
- Commitment to Democracy: TDEA/FAFEN practices democratic decision-making processes in its management and programs.

4. Objectives

The aims and objects of the Trust shall be as follows:

- To educate people of all ages, gender, race, ethnicity, creed and religion about their democratic rights and responsibilities;
- To educate people of all ages, gender, race, ethnicity, creed and religion about the significance of engaging in all forms of democratic processes for democratic governance;

- To engage people and civil society groups in carrying out democratic accountabilities such as election observation, oversight of legislatures, government oversight and any other as may be decided by the Board; and
- To undertake research and bring out periodic print and online publications in areas it deems fit in order to inform its work and for democratic education of general public.

5. Trustee code of conduct

The Code of Conduct is meant for the Trustees to ensure high standards and makes it clear how potential conflicts of interests are dealt with. Each Trustee shall sign the Code at the first meeting of each year.

5.1. Selflessness

Trustees of Trust for Democratic Education and Accountability (TDEA) have a general duty to act in the best interests of TDEA as a whole. They should not do so in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, their friends or the organization they come from or represent.

5.2. Integrity

TDEA's Trustees:

- should not place themselves under any financial or other obligation to outside individuals or organizations that might seek to influence them in the performance of their role;
- as well as avoiding actual impropriety, should avoid any appearance of improper behavior;
- should avoid accepting gifts and hospitality that might reasonably be thought to influence their judgment.

5.3. Objectivity

In carrying out their role, including making appointments (including trustee appointments), awarding contracts, recommending individuals for rewards and benefits or transacting other business, TDEA's Trustees should ensure that decisions are made solely on merit.

5.4. Accountability

TDEA's Trustees:

- have a duty to comply with the law on all occasions in accordance with the trust placed in them and in such a way as to preserve public confidence in TDEA.
- are accountable for their decisions and actions to the public, funders and service users. They must submit themselves to what scrutiny is appropriate to their role.

5.5. Openness

TDEA's trustees:

- should ensure that confidential material, including material about individuals, is handled in accordance with due care;

- should be as open as possible about their decisions and action that they take. They should give reasons for their decisions and restrict information only when the wider interest clearly demands.

5.6. Honesty

TDEA's Trustees:

- have a duty to declare any interests relating to their Trustee role and to take steps to resolve any conflicts that may arise. Where private interests of a Trustee conflicts with their Trustee duties, he she must resolve this conflict in favour of the Trustee role;
- must make relevant declarations of interest in the different circumstances and roles they play both within and outside TDEA.

5.7. Leadership

TDEA's Trustees:

- should promote and support the principles of leadership by example;
- be able to respect boundaries between executive and governance functions. There will be circumstances under which Trustees will be working directly with TDEA staff. Guidelines for such working relationships must be clear to both staff and Trustees and, when these occasions arise, the Chief Executive/Chair should be informed in advance.

5.8. Confidentiality

Confidential Information shall mean any and all information obtained by or disclosed to a Trustee in the course of serving on the Board, including but not limited to, TDEA employee salaries and benefits, donor identities and contributions, TDEA's negotiations and plans, performance of member organization of the Free and Fair Election Network, etc. As of part of the Trustee's consideration of membership on the Board, the Trustee agrees to the following regarding use and disclosure of Confidential Information.

The Trustee acknowledges that the work of the TDEA is undertaken in strict confidence and with an understanding of privacy. Disclosure of Confidential Information will cause the TDEA irreparable harm, which may result in loss of TDEA credibility, personnel or a loss of contributions, donations, plans, and progress or other serious harm.

The Trustee agrees that he/she shall not use any Confidential Information except to perform his/her duties on the Board.

The Trustee agrees that he/she shall not disclose, discuss, divulge, or distribute (or assist any third-party) to or with any party outside the Board any Confidential Information.
